DEWEY DEFEATS JORDAN IN FAST TIME

The Sain Colt Gives the Haves Crack Three Pounds and a Ten-Pound Beating.

DOMINICK'S WHIPPING FINISH.

St. Louis Rider Gives Odnor Valuable Assistance in Winning the Fifth Race-Some Ugly Performances.

Mr. Schreiber's Sain colt, Dewsy, ran s rattling mile and seventy yards in the fourth race at the Fair Grounds yesterday with 99 pounds up. He turned the first mile in 1:41 and came home in 1:46 eased up at the end. He gave Jordan, the Hayes Lamplighter colt, that performed so well at Nashville, three pounds in weight and a ten-pound beating. Mr. Hayes has been quoted as saying that Jordan was the best 8-year-old in the West with 55 pounds up. Yet Dewey gave him a rare beating and Little Scout also trimmed him handsomely. This fellow ran a rare race in this event. for he was off badly and much interfered with in the run home. The fifth race went to the 7-to-10 shot Odnor, who had a hard time getting home.

Brewer Schorr and Satin Coat had him Brewer Schorr and Satin Coat had him beaten a sixteenth, but Bell on the Brewer, and O'Nell on Satin Coat could not sit still and ride. They had to draw whips. That killed their mounts chances. Satin Coat stopped under O'Neill's weak, drive, and Brewer Schoor swerved and staggered all over the track when little Bell went to the bat. Dominick, who was never much of a whip rider, certainly put up a great driving finish here. He lifted Odnor with whip and hand and got him over winner.

great driving finish here. He lifted Odnor with while and hand and got him over winner.

Geheimness, another Sain, well ridden by Singleton, got home in the first event, a 2-year-old sprint, half furiong over the standard Maginn distance of half a mile. The Abe Cahn party cut a good thing loose in Predominate in the second. Chris Schawacker and his friends backed Duela all ways. Beauchamp gave Predominate a nice ride and got him home an easy winner.

The third race was a funny one. Hilee was an odds-on choice. He was off none to smartly, had no great early speed, yet every one seemed interested in letting him get to the front and letting him stay there when he did get there. The boys on Father Wentker and Semicolon seem to take it for granted that Hilee could not be beaten. Bell on Cora Havill was the only busy jockey in the race.

The ride on Imperialist here was shocking. This horse showed speed last time out. Yesterday he needed a steam winch to hoist his anchor. He could not beat a champion pie-eater. The effort of Huntressa in the Dewey race was also shameful. A good, honest, filly, she had poor little M. Lowe up and her race was something frightful. On the she figured up there.

The man may be said of the race of Anouse in the last event. She was supposed to be good and on her San Francisco form had friends. She ran away back in a bad field, Beauchamp seemed to care little where she finished. Gienwood, well handled by O'Connor, went on and got all the money.

The races of Duke Dashaway, Huntressa, Antolee, Gray Forge and imperialist were very bad. Their future riders, odds and races will be worth attention.

Races That Are Not Up to Form-Mil-ton Young's Good Horses. For Sweeny—The races of Duke Dashaway, Huntressa, Grey Forge, Antolee, Imperialist, yesterday. All hands can do better, very much better. And when a horse that can do better does not do better he should be made to do better.

Barney Schreiber refused $1,250 for Zirl before she was claimed by Daniel & Co. yesterday. He wanted $1,500 with the privilege of returning $500 for the filly when her racing days are over. Mr. Schreiber wants to cross the Sain fillies with Bannockburn.

Antolee looked handsome finishing behind Burnett's Walkway and a lot of that kind resterday. After his race the other day, Grey Forge looked sweet beaten off by Gil-bert and Mac Miller.

Hughle McCarren has been running his horses to win and his boy has been doing his best to get the money. And the gentle Hugh has been picking up a dollar or two at that.

Bell had a bad day. His rides on Brewer chorr and Nearest were poor exhibitions.

"This is the first time Militon Young's colors have been seen on a St. Louis track since the early eighties," said President C. A. Tilles of the Fair Association yesterday, as Light Hunt pranced by the grand stand on his way to the post in the second event. "Mr. Young is still racing in the same colors that he used when Bancroft, Bootjack, Monogram, Beatitude and Beatrice were ground when Mr. Young raced him."

"Milton Young has achieved fame and fortune of recent years breeding thoroughbreds." continued Mr. Tilles. "He is the owner of the famous McGrathiana Stud in Kentucky, where the mighty Hanover, Hindoo's greatest son, reigned. Mr. Young astonished the turf world when he bought Hanover from the Dwyer Bros., for $25,000, after the horse had broken down. People thought he was crazy to pay this enormous price for a broken-down thoroughbred, but the master of McGrathiana knew what he was doing, for Hanover afterwards developed into America's premier thoroughbred and made a great fortune for his owner. Mr. Young is the man who sold Monogram and Clay Pate to R. C. Pate of St. Louis, when the latter first went on the turf. He also sold Troubadour to Captain S. S. Brown.

"This colt, Light Hunt, is out of a mare that will doubtless be easily recalled by voteran St. Louis turfites," added Mr. Tilles. "Mamie Hunt is her name, and she was by Frogtown. Captain Shaw, an old Mississippi River navigator, who made his home in St. Charles, Mo. bred her and subsequently sold her to Dan Honig, who won races with her all over the country."

Algernon Daingerfield is at the Pair Grounds with the Western division of James R, and Foxhall P. Keene's racing stable. This is the first time the Messre. It is seldom indeed that a fourteen-horse field looks well at four and one-half furlongs, which is a half furlong beyond the famous standard Maginn distance for 2year-olds, but Avold is so fast at the start and has run so knowingly that she looks good to-day, even if the clever colt Henry McDaniel is in with her. Notwithstanding the fact of such stars as Lucy Crawford and J. Sidney Walker and Flying Girlwhat girl would not fly in the face of that brave pair?-these two seem to stand out in the light in the first race to-day. A bet on either cannot go much astray.

If it is muddy, Mona will win the second on either cannot go much astray.

If it is muddy, Mona will win the second race. If not, depend upon Chantrelle, Mr. Civili's flying filly. Miss Golighty will be heard from if she gets off. Muddy, and the third race is Guide Rock's race on what the did under a poor rider last time out. If it is not muddy, Levistinan is there.

Ampere, lame as he is, should win the third event. He is the class, has had bad luck and is bound to get a switch in it. Jake Weber's last race shone with exceeding brilliance. If Johnnie McCarty is fit he will take a beating that should produce a new track record, and Wakita on her last two races will bear watching.

If you have money about the third race, take two or three thousand among the needy bookmakers and plaster it on Schwalbe at any price. With ten pounds off from her race against Crimean she cannot go wrong, unless her feet fall off. Compared with her the others are behind the hill. So go down to Virginia Carroll's wharf, throw out the haweer, call in the stevedores and unload. Buccleuth ought to nose Brulare out of place money. Echwalbe should gallop into nort and drop anchor some six hours ahead of the other turtles.

Go out among the wise boys before the sixth race and find what good things are sticking up their sleeves. After betting on Schwalbe there will be craving a change of air and secnery. The man that can pick a winner there should have a 5-to-1 go for his lucre.

Schwalbe and Avoid look sweet. Ampere the sixth and a should have a 5-to-1 go for his lucre.

Louisville, Ky, May 14.—Pat Dunn's Toah won the feature race at Churchill Downs to-day in impressive style, with Abe Frank, G. C. Bennett & Co.'s American Derby candidate, a bad second. Abe Frank made the running until the turn into the stretch, when Winkfield, who had kept Toah near the leader, took command and steadily drew away from the favorite, winning by two lengths. League is the corporate name selected by the body of hunters and fishermen who met last night at Wenzel's hall. The league has been organized some time, but it has never been formally incorporated.

President Howard H. Bickley called for the report from the committee which drew up the necessary papers, and it was forthcoming. In a few days the papers will have been filed at Jefferson City. The league was formed to encourage the protection of fish and game, to secure the passage of proper laws to protect sportsmen, as well as to protect private property against trespassing; to guard against unjust arrests and to encourage the organization of clubs throughout Missouri

John A. Talty addressed the members on the game laws. He pointed out the technicalities of the law, applause being generously given at intervals. Judge Talty concluded by recting a original poem, which he had composed some time ago, and it was received with laughter. The closing paragraph is thus:

The fish came up and took the bread, got drunk, began to ficat.
